EOD In 2018, the University of North Florida (UNF) received the prestigious INSIGHT Into Diversity magazine Higher Education Excellence in Diversity (HEED) Award, the only application-based national award for U.S. colleges and universities that exhibit an outstanding commitment to diversity and inclusion across their campuses. In addition, UNF ranked highest among the 80 HEED institutions and was also recognized as a 2018 Diversity Champion.

The University of North Florida (UNF) is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all who interact in our community. In building this environment, we strive to attract students, faculty and staff from a variety of cultures, backgrounds and life experiences. The University of North Florida is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not commit or permit discrimination or harassment on the basis of genetic information, race, color, religion, age, sex, disability, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, or veteran status in any educational, employment, social, recreational program or activity that it offers. In addition, UNF will not commit or permit retaliation against an individual who complains of discrimination or harassment or an individual who cooperates in an investigation of an alleged violation of University Regulation.

Carnegie UNF is a Carnegie Community Engaged Institution. This designation celebrates the University's collaboration with community partners from the local to the global level. It reflects UNF's mission to contribute to the public good and prepare educated, engaged citizens.

Faculty Initiatives The University of North Florida promotes the quality and effectiveness of education and strives to maintain the highest standards of academic excellence in all phases of instruction, research/scholarship/creative activity, and service.

General Description / Primary Purpose The College of Education & Human Services at the University of North Florida (UNF) is seeking applications for the Bill Herrold Endowed Professor and Director of Clinical Experiences/Educator Preparation Partnerships. We are seeking a colleague whose research focuses on clinical practice and the complexities of teacher education. This person will be an innovative teacher educator who possesses expertise in clinical practice and school-university partnerships as well as the leadership and research expertise needed to serve as the Director. This faculty member will have the opportunity to work with doctoral, masters, and/or undergraduate students.

The Department of Teaching, Learning, and Curriculum is dedicated to the goal of building a culturally inclusive and pluralistic faculty committed to teaching and learning in a multicultural environment across the school-university partnership. As such, we are interested in qualified candidates who can contribute, through their research, teaching, and service, to the diversity, inclusion and excellence of our academic community. As such, we strongly encourage women and minorities from historically underrepresented groups to apply.
