

ATE

Association of Teacher Educators

Plan to attend a Special Interest Group (SIG) Explore an opportunity for you to meet others with similar professional interests.

Special Interest Groups meet on Monday, February 18, 10:40-12:10 pm, 12:20-1:20 pm, 4:30-6:30 pm

The SIG groups have presentations, panels, discussion, business meetings, or other activities specific to that special interest group. The SIGs always welcomes new members. Just check the ATE program for time and location of meetings. Find the SIG that most interests you!

Monday, February 18, 10:40 am -12:10 pm

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP – Georgia 9

Co-Chairs: Mary J. Goggins Selke and Paul Zavada

Our emphasis on cross-institutional collaboration and research includes virtual supervision, graduate program redesign, and principals as teacher educators.

INCLUSIVE EDUCATION – Savannah 1

Chair: Bianca Prather-Jones

Meet with other special educators to discuss current trends and issues in Inclusive Education.

SCIENCE EDUCATION – Capital North

Co-Chairs: Edith Davis and Ute Kaden

The purpose of the Science Education SIG is to discuss current trends and issues in Science Education.

Monday, 3:25-6:30 pm

EARLY CHILDHOOD TEACHER EDUCATION – Atlanta 1

Chair: Christopher Meidl

Join us for a discussion of current initiatives and issues in early childhood teacher preparation

Monday, 4:30-6:30 pm

CERTIFICATION AND ACCOUNTABILITY – Georgia 7

Chair: Ginny Fender

Our purpose is to serve as a forum for sharing ideas and disseminating information relating to certification issues and the accountability of programs.

CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT – Savannah 1

Chair: Kimberly White

Come join our SIG to dialogue about current issues in Classroom Management.

EXEMPLARY SUPERVISORY PRACTICES – Atlanta 5

Chair: Sylven S. Beck

The Exemplary Supervisory Practices SIG is a community of learners interested in the theory and best practices associated with clinical supervision

MATHEMATICS EDUCATORS – Georgia 6

Co-Chairs: David Arneson and Regina Mistretta

This SIG session will involve both a research presentation and an opportunity to engage in conversation with colleagues about individual research interests and current projects.

MULTICULTURAL EDUCATION – Atlanta 3

Chair: Natalie King

This SIG represents an ongoing forum dedicated to the generation, dissemination, and critique of scholarship that informs curricular and pedagogical thought, practice, and policy in relation to social justice in teacher education.

NETWORK OF SECONDARY EDUCATION PROFESSORS – See program

Chair: Tammie Brown

Meet with other Professors of Secondary Education methods courses.
Best practices for secondary educators using the Categories of Professional Knowledge for Teaching from the Student's View – Learning Process - Learners

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SITE PARTNERSHIPS - Athens

Chair: Kelly O'Neal-Hixon

Participate in PDS Research through the ATE Vision.

PROFESSIONAL DISPOSITIONS – Atlanta 4

Chair: Carol Zehms

Interested in teacher candidate dispositions, what dispositions to assess, and how to assess dispositions?
This new SIG invites you to discuss the many Teacher Education issues affected by dispositions.

RETIRED TEACHER EDUCATORS – Georgia 3

Co-Chairs: Marilyn Nicholas, Jim Whiteman, Fancy Funk

This SIG has presentations of special interest to retired educators.

STUDENTS IN TEACHER EDUCATION – Georgia 5

Chair: Giang-Nguyen Nguyen

Come join this SIG to hear about research projects completed by students and their mentors in teacher education.

MIDDLE LEVEL EDUCATORS – Georgia 9

Chair: Laura Kaufmann

The Middle Level Educators SIG provides a forum for the presentation of research and the discussion of issues concerning middle schooling and the training of teachers for middle level.

THE SELF-STUDY OF TEACHER EDUCATION – Georgia 8

Chair: Brandon Butler

Meet with others to learn about the nature and goals of self-study and highlighting the formation of a new ATE SIG on the self-study of teacher education practices.

SCHOOL VIOLENCE PREVENTION - Georgia 4

Chair: Gwendolyn Middlebrooks

The School Violence Prevention SIG meets to discuss issues in school violence that impact our schools and communities today.

ATE SIG Coordinator – Shirley De Lucia

sdelucia@capital.edu