Good afternoon,

The PPC reviewed a book proposal titled Advocacy for Educators: A Roadmap to Action submitted by the ATE Advocacy Commission. The committee reviewers agreed this an important and relevant topic. The reviewers recommended publication with one recommended revision:

- The PPC would recommend the addition of more current literature and any available empirical data to the introductory chapter and to ensure the same in future chapters.

I reached out to share these recommended revisions with the editors and they acknowledged that they are amenable to making the additions. Given their willingness to make the revisions, the PPC is pleased to recommend publishing the proposed book to the ATE Board.

Attached are the submission materials for the Board's review/information:

- ATE book proposal form
- Introduction Chapter
- Sample Chapter
- Authors' Vita

Please let me know if you have any questions or need any additional information.

Best,
Laila
